

Embracing Your Unique Perspectives in the Grant Program

Digging Deeper Webinar Series

June 6, 2019

Facilitated by: Ashley Brompton and
Kaitlin Shetler

Introductions

- Please introduce yourself and your collaboration as well as where your collaboration is in the process.

Goals for Today

- Review the stages of planning and development in the Disability Grant Program;
- Discuss how collaborations have personalized their experience in the Grant Program in each stage;
- Explore strategies for grantees to leverage the process to reveal innovative solutions and unique practices and products.

Stages of Planning and Development and Examples

- Collaboration building
- Needs assessment
- Strategic planning

What is unique about your collaboration?

Collaboration

working together to achieve a goal. It is a recursive process where two or more people or organizations work together to realize shared goals. Collaboration also present in opposing goals exhibit the notion of adversarial collaboration. This is not a common case

How does your collaboration's uniqueness contribute to your work together?

How have your work products reflected the unique aspects of your collaboration?

How can you leverage other collaborations' uniqueness/expertise?

In what ways can you help other collaborations embrace their unique perspectives/ expertise?

In what ways does (can) Vera's TA encourage you to embrace your uniqueness?

Questions? Thank you!

Please take a minute to complete a short survey about this webinar.

Thank you!